Dear Russell,

It is not often that an organization exceeds expectations for quality and service; but Breninger Communications has repeatedly delivered that standard throughout our ten year association.

The recent successful deployment of our scheduling call center and VoIP solution was handled effortlessly by your team. All phases from design to installation and training were thoroughly and professionally addressed with no disruption to daily operations.

Your personal attention to our practice and the overall scope of all data communications and networking issues have truly set you apart from other vendors. Our confidence in you and your company is sustained by the consistency and integrity with which you do business.

Thank you for providing reliable, excellent service to our practice.

Best regards,

Megan Riccio
